Why We Collect and Use Workforce Information

We use workforce data to:

- Enable the deployment of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- Inform the development of recruitment and retention policies

- Enable individuals to be paid
- Provide support to staff when required (e.g. medical emergencies)
- Maintain high standards of performance from the workforce
- Carrying out pre-employment checks and equal opportunities monitoring
- Complying with the terms of the contract of employment
- Making reasonable adjustments
- Managing absence
- Managing performance, grievance and disciplinary matters
- Safeguarding purposes
- Managing workplace accidents

Under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the legal basis / bases we rely on for processing personal information for general purposes are:

(6a) Consent: employees and others who work in the school have given clear consent for us to process their personal data for the purposes indicated above.

(6c) A Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for us to comply with the law.

(6d) A duty to safeguard pupils: the processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject (children); (e.g. we are required to have evidence that staff have DBS clearance).

(6e) Public task: the processing is necessary for us to perform a task in the public interest or for our official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.

The lawful bases for processing personal data are set out in Article 6 of the UK General Data Protection Regulation.

Special Categories of data are set out in Article 9 of the UK General Data Protection Regulation. The school will work within the conditions of GDPR - Article 9 of the UK GDPR:

(9.2a) explicit consent. In circumstances where we seek consent, we make sure that the consent is unambiguous and for one or more specified purposes, is given by an affirmative action and is recorded as the condition for processing. Examples of our processing include staff dietary requirements, and health information we receive from our staff who require a reasonable adjustment to access our site and services.

(9.2b) processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights of the controller or of the data subject in the field of employment and social security and social protection law in so far as it is authorised by Union or Member State law or a collective agreement pursuant to Member State law providing for appropriate safeguards for the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.

(9.2c) where processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the data subject or of another natural person. An example of our processing would be using health information about a member of staff in a medical emergency.

(9.2f) for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. Examples of our processing include processing relating to any employment tribunal or other litigation.

(9.2g) reasons of substantial public interest. As a school, we are a publicly funded body and provide a safeguarding role to young and vulnerable people. Our processing of personal data in this context is for the purposes of substantial public interest and is necessary for the carrying out of our role. Examples of our processing include the information we seek or receive as part of investigating an allegation.

(9.2j) for archiving purposes in the public interest. The relevant purpose we rely on is Schedule 1 Part 1 paragraph 4 – archiving. An example of our processing is the transfers we make to the County Archives as set out in our Records Management Policy.

We process criminal offence data under Article 10 of the UK GDPR.

Our Data Protection Policy highlights the conditions for processing in Schedule 1 of the Data Protection Act 2018 that we process Special Category and Criminal Offence data under.

- DBS information
- CCTV

Workforce data is essential for the academy's/trust's operational use. Whilst the majority of personal information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with UK GDPR, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain information to us or if you have a choice in this and we will tell you what you need to do if you do not want to share this information with us.

Storing Workforce Information

We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please contact the school.

Who We Share Workforce Information With

We routinely share aspects of workforce information with:

- The Secretary of State
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- The Academy Trust
- Suppliers and service providers with whom we have a contract.
- Health and Safety Executive
- DBS
- Insurance providers
- Training providers
- Professional advisors

Why We Share Academy Workforce Information

We do not share information about our workforce members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Secretary of State

We are required to share information about our workforce members with the Secretary of State under section 7 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections.

We are required to share information about our school employees with the (DfE) under section 7 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

The Academy Trust

We have centralised management of staffing incorporating HR and payroll services

Suppliers and Service Providers

We are required to share certain information about our school workforce with suppliers and service providers (e.g. pensions information) to enable staff to undertake the legal responsibilities of their role.

How We Use AI

- Our school uses AI technologies to enhance learning, support administrative processes, and analyse anonymised data.
- We do not use AI for automated decision-making or profiling without clear oversight and safeguards.
- If AI tools process personal data, we will ensure full compliance with UK GDPR, conduct Data Protection Impact Assessments (DPIAs), and obtain consent where required.

What Data AI Systems May Collect

AI tools used in our school may collect the following non-identifiable data:

- Usage data (e.g., frequency of AI tool interactions)
- Anonymised learning analytics
- General feedback data for improving educational tools

However, some third-party AI tools may collect additional data, such as:

- IP address, device location, system/browser information
- Text inputs provided by users (which may include personal data if entered manually)

We ensure that all AI vendors used by our school comply with UK GDPR and that no sensitive data is shared with AI tools without appropriate safeguards.

Requesting Access to Your Personal Data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact informationgovernance@herefordshire.gov.uk

Data Protection Officer at Herefordshire Council, Plough Lane, Hereford HR4 0LE

How Government Uses Your Data

The workforce data that we lawfully share with the Department for Education (DfE) through data collections:

- informs the Department for Education (DfE) policy on pay and the monitoring of the effectiveness and diversity of the school workforce
- links to school/academy funding and expenditure
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy

Data Collection Requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (DfE) including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

Sharing by the Department for Education (DfE)

The Department for Education (DfE) may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department for Education (DfE) will only share your personal data where it is lawful, secure and ethical to do so and has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether the Department for Education (DfE) releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of public benefit, proportionality, legal underpinning and strict information security standards.
